

Financial Market, Company Law

Transparency Registry: Information from the Federal Office of Justice

22.10.2026

At a glance

- The new transparency registry for legal entities has been in effect since October 1, 2026.
- Affected companies are subject to reporting requirements and statutory transition periods.
- The Federal Office of Justice provides information on the key points and next steps.

With the entry into force of the Federal Act on the Transparency of Legal Entities and the Identification of Beneficial Owners (TJPG) on October 1, 2026, the Swiss Transparency Register was also established. Many companies are now required to identify their beneficial owners and report them to the registry.

The Federal Office of Justice has compiled the most important information. This overview provides information on which companies are affected, what they need to do now, and which deadlines must be observed.

Additional information from the Federal Office of Justice is available at www.transpareg.admin.ch. Beneficial owners must be reported via EasyGov.swiss.

Erich Herzog

Head of Department Competition & Regulatory Affairs, General Counsel, Member of the Extended Executive Board

Isabelle Meier

Project Manager Competition & Regulatory Affairs